Washington, DC-Not even the pretense of a president claiming not to know could deny the outpouring of patriotism in the nation's Capitol today.

We The People came to Washington today. They came from every state; they came from other countries, proof positive that the Lamp of Liberty long ago set alight in America, burns to the present day in the Free World.

They came with their neighbours, their children and grandchildren, their flags and their pets.

They came to take a strong stand for the values and principles that make America

In a sea of red, white and blue, Americans from all walks of life and their supporters proved that patriotism will always trump politics.

Aware that the mainstream media would downplay their numbers and the significance of 9-12, hundreds of thousands of Americans out today to protest massive government spending and massive government health care no longer count on the MSM for coverage. It is one of the necessities of a czar-studded Barack Obama Administration that We The People are now the media.

"I've never seen so many people in any one place in my lifetime, Diane Eck from Virginia told Canada Free Press (CFP).

IT whizz Brian Thompson and columnist Marinka Peschmann, who have joined the March to Washington say conflicting reports peg the crowd anywhere from tens of thousands to 1.5 million.

Meanwhile, the current occupant of the Oval office, off to pump Health Care reform in Minnesota may pretend not to hear the cries of We The People. But how can a deaf administration matter when their message is being heard loudly and clearly throughout the Free World?
